MINERAL PROPERTIES IN BHOPAL FOR LEASE.

STRATIFIED Limestone of excellent quality, suitable for lime-burning and cement manufacture, has been found within 2 miles of G. I. P. Ry. line between Budni and Barkhera Stations. The seam is about 50 feet thick, with a gentle dip, and exposed along hill-side for miles. Coal could be had from Pench collieries less than 200 miles from the field, and cheap wood-fuel, labour, water and clay are all available locally.

Also, a bed of very fine clay of deep red colour has been found in lava-flow. This is highly suitable for the manufacture of paints.

The undersigned will give suitable applicants every possible help to see the properties before the terms of lease are settled with the Bhopal Darbar.

THREE PARTS OUT

Owing to its increased sale the Mysteries of the Mogul Court requires to be reprinted. But the publication of such a big book would take a long time and cost a heavy sum. Besides some of the intending purchasers of the book who cannot afford to pay Rs. 6 at a time, have just asked us to bring out the book in parts. It is therefore, that we intend to publish the books in part. It had been revised very carefully this time. Only limited number of the Romance are being printed. Try to register your name early.

This work, the Mysteries of the Mogul Court will be quite a unique one. No one has yet made an attempt to place before the world the mysteries,—secret conspiracies, privat and public executions,—deeplaid plots, horrible bristling incidents with in the thousandse of labyrinths; secret passages, rooms doors and windows in the celestial palaces of the Great Mogul. This Unique work being a Historical Romance will impart flesh and blood to this skeleton and place the Mogul Emperors, their great Begums and their innumerable Bandis together with the great Amirs, Omraos Mansabdars and Rajput Rajas in living forms.

NO MALARIA

CAN RESIST

PALUDINA

The latest discovery in Medicine. It cures where Quinine fails.

PALUDINA is a combination of rare and powerful alkaloids most efficacious in the treatment of Malarial Fevers.

It has recently been discovered in France that all malarial germs are not destroyed by Quinine. A combination of Drugs of different optical activities gives the best result. PALUDINA is such a combination. It is thus different from the so-called ague mixtures which are nothing else but Quinine mixtures.

Reuter reported 42 points higher in New York futures on 20th instant and 49 points aigher on the 21st instant. The recent advance is due to good spot demand and trade and continued general buying on political situation more favourable. The undertone of the New York as well as Liverpool markets is very steady on trade and commission houses buying. The tone of the Manchester market also is decidedly better. Our opinion is still very bullish and would recommend buying at present prices and particularly on all breaks. Messrs. Umrigar and Vesugar's New York friends Messrs. A Norden & Co. cable as under dated 21,10-22.

"We think small supply warrants much higher prices. We advise buying."

"Heavy general buying, looks like higher."

Their Liverpool friends Messrs. Charles Stewart & Son cable as under:—

"Manchester market decidedly better in tone. We think the advance will go further."

Dr. S. Kangaswami Iyengar

"DIABETES SPECIALIST"

Over 20 years experience and awarded Gold Medals. Of the numerous testimonials accorded by patients as well as Chemical Analysers, the following are taken at random:—

Mr. Bhailal V. Kothari, B.A., LL.B. late Vakil, High Court, Lamington Road Bombay.

Now, Nayab Divan, Baria.

"It gives me great and sincere pleasure in testifying to the real efficacy of Dr. S. K. Ayengar's medicinal drugs—I was suffering from Diabetes for over 4 years and had tried many well-known Doctors of Bombay but without any effect. I then put myself under the treatment of the said Doctor Iyengar and he prescribed a course of 7 complete weeks for me. As each Week progressed the disease, that could not at all be controlled before, began to abate with the result that I was completely cured at the end of the course in such a marvellous way that I can very well say that Dr. Iyengar is not a DIABETES SPECIALIST IN NAME BUT A SPECIALIST INDEED IN REALITY. My Specific Gravity which was 1038 in the beginning of course came down to 1015 at the end and grains of sugar per ounce of urine fell down from 24 to nil while sediments were not at all visible."

DO BUSINESS WITH CAUTION.

It is common experience that the man who is cautious is always prosperous and the merchant who think twice before doing any transaction escapes any financial trouble. If, before, doing any teji-mandi transaction, you will consult Joshi Krishanlal Ramakant Sharma regarding the future developments and tendency of teji-mandi and other business, you will easily recover any loss you have sustained, and besides make large profits. Joshi Krishnalal, by his expert knowledge of Astrology, Ramal Vidya and the Occult Science, and by his vast practical experience, can foretell quite accurately the future teji-mandi prices of cotton golds, silver, shares and any other commodity. All experienced businessmen consult him as to their business and consequently are always successful. Numberless certificates have been received from them, a few of which are given below. Convince yourself by a personal visit.

CERTIFICATES.

Pandit Krishnalal Ramakant Sharma has been known to me for sometimes, and I feel it a pleasure to say that every one of his predictions from my palm reading have been perfect come to pass. He has been also assisting me in my share transaction and over 90 per cent. have come right.

I cannot help but honestly declare him to be a marvellous man where the science of Astrology and palmistry is concerned, and I feel grateful to him for his assistance I received in recovering my financial losses.—

BOMBAY. 31-7-19. A. B. STANDLEY.

BOMBAY, 31-7-18.

I have, hereby to certify that Joshi Krishnalal Sharma is a great expert in Astrology and his predictions in various businesses are found a quite true. He also gives the accurate figures of fluctuations in various shares and I have been greatly benefitted by his visit. I have earned a good deal in shares and price goods and which is only due to my visit with him.

(Sd.) MOOLCHAND RAOJI.

I know Mr. Krishnalal Sharma from a long time. He is a native of Purtabgadh (Rajputana) and belongs to a very respectable Brahmin family I am glad to testify that he is well versed in Astronomy. He worked for me here for a long time and give me entire satisfaction.

I hope he will give satisfaction to anybody if any work be given to him.

I wish him success,

(Sd.) MEHTA KISHANSINGH.

4th February, 1915. DEWAN OF JODHPUR.

I have the greatest pleasure to hereby certify that the predictions given by Pandit Jotishee Krishnalal Ramakant of Bombay as regards cotton have proved so very correct that one is simply astonished at the extraordinary abilities that a man can acquire in this world. I may say he possesses divine powers. It is only a fortunate few that are brought in contact with such real men, as in these days it is very difficult to find a true and real man from a host of impostore just as it is difficult to find a real diamond amongst a heap of stones. I have no hesitation in saying that he is a king among Astrologers or a seer in the heavenly firmament, bringing hope and happiness to his various customers just as the rising sun brings warmth and pleasure to all the living creation in this world. I wish we had ony more such real men in our land so that they may bring good to all men and guide them right through the many pitfals in this world.

I earnestly pray God that he may be spare the full span of life that is allotted to a man in this world so that he may bring joy and happiness to all that come in contact with them.

(Sd.) RAGHAVENDRA R. SIRUR.

CONGRESS ACTIVITY IN UTKAL.

GAGGING ORDERS AGAIN.

CUTTACK, OCT. 17.

The Secretary, Utkal Provincial Congress Committee, writes as follows:—

A Bulletin was issued on the 11th instant from the Congress Office to the effect that in accordance with the instructions of the Central Khilafat Committee people should celebrate the Kemalist victory and Smyrna Day on the 13th, 14th and 15th instants. This was unbearable to the powers that be and a notice under section 144, Criminal Procedure Code, was served on Sj. R. Mahabir Sinha, Sj. Raj Krishna Bhose, President and Secretary of the Utkal Provincial Congress Committee, respectively: Sj. Gopabandhu Chowdhuri, Member in charge, Utkal Provincial Khadi Department, Sj. Birahishor Das, Secretary, Cuttack District Congress Committee, Sj. Ram Prasad Sinha and Mr. Ahmad Ali, Congress and Khilafat workers, issued the following notice:—

As the notice was not to be disobeyed the items of procession, meeting and demonstration were abandoned. Only prayers were offered and Mauluds were held at mosques. All the mosques in the town were iluminated at night the prominent of them being the Juma Masjid at Balubazar.

KINDRAPADA WORKERS GAGGED.

At Kindrapada in the Cuttack District, the Congress workers had arranged to celebratee Mahatmaji's birthday by Sankirtan, procession and meeting. When the Sankirtan party was going round the town the police constables and chaukidars ran to it and broke up the party.

Soon after this a notice, under Section 144, Criminal Procedure Code was served on Sj.'s Raghunath Mohanty Sri Dhar Sahoa, Maheswar Das and Duryodhayan Misra, banning processions and meetings.

The names of those who had decorated their houses were taken down by the police and they were threatened with prosecution. But in spite of all this the day was celebrated by decorating houses, holding Sankirtans, Satyahir Puja, wearing new khaddar dresses and reading Mahatmaji's biography in which both Hindus and Mahomedans took part.

AT BOLGARH.

At Bolgrah in Phri District, arrangements had been made to hold a khaddar mela on Mahatmaji's birthday. The Police got scent of it and ordered people by beat of drum in surrounding villages not to join the mela and that anybody disobeying the order would be punished with rigorous imprisonment for six months and a fine of Rs. 500. Notwithstanding this the mela was held with Sankirtan and twelve spinners were awarded money for spinning fine yarn. Fine yarn of counts 15 to 40 was brought to the mela for exhibition.

AT JAJPUR.

At Bingharpur in Jajpur Sub-division, Cuttack Distrct, the drummer who was out by the Congress worker of the place to give notice to the people to celebrate Mahatmaji's birthday, was assaulted by a Chaukidar who also rebuked Volunteer Sj. Birkishar Behera in most indecent terms. But this could not prevent the meeting that was to be held on that auspicious day. People mustered strong at the meeting and displayed great enthusiasm. This added fuel to fire.

[illegible] Magistrate of Jajpur went to Bingharpur on [illegible] official duty and came across Volunteer Sj. Birakshar Behera admonishing him to be on his good behaviour.

PROVINCIAL KHADDAR BOARD.

A meeting of the members of the Utkal Provincial Khaddar Board with a co-opted member from Sambalpur was held on the 8th instant at Khurdha, Puri District, at which a resolution was passed requesting the Provincial General Secretary to apply for an urgent loan of Rs. 5,000 to the All-India Congress Khadi Department to enable this Board to stock cotton as cotton harvesting season has well nigh begun.

Pandit Gopabandhu Das and Dr. Autul Behari Acharya have not yet been transferred from the Cuttack Jail owing to the defamation case against them at Kanika which is pending for nearly five months, no body knows why. Pandit Gopabandhu is suffering from dysentery again.

Babaji Ram Das who was sentenced to one year's rigorous imprisonment under Section 108, Criminal Procedure Code, in November last, will be released shortly.

EDUCATION OF UNTOUCHABLES.

Recently an elementary school has been opened at Rai, Sungonda, Cuttack District, for the education of untouchables. It has strength of 15 untouchable students at present. The sole efforts of Babu Banshidhar Mishra in this connexion in spite of several social barriers are, indeed, exemplary and praiseworthy.

Another night school has been opened at Banpur, Puri District, for untouchables. The students of the local national school are managing the institution with considerable enthusiasm.

PARSEE WAR MEMORIAL.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—I am glad that the suggestion originally made by me in the Press as well as from the chair at the meeting of the Parsees held on their New Year's Day has received the support of your correspondent from Jamnagar in last Thursday's issue of your paper.

The further suggestion made by him deserves the early attention of the members of my community who have been so lethargic in the discharge of the duty they owe to those of their youths who have fallen in the Great War, in the cause of the Empire and who have also brought glory to their own community. Not only should the portraits of the more than a dozen youths be put up in the principal Parsi Fire-Temples with suitable inscriptions but, as your correspondent suggests, a memorial with their names inscribed should also be erected in a public place, so as to serve as an example to their countrymen. It will not cost much to accomplish this object, which, if properly brought to the notice of the Parsi community, it will not be, I am sure, slow to make suitable response. It is strange that a community that boasts of having a large number of public-spirited members should have been so backward in expressing its sense of gratitude in a suitable manner to those who sacrificed their lives in the cause of the Empire. Yours, etc.,

R. B. PAYMASTER.

GUJARAT AND PRIMARY EDUCATION.

LECTURE AT MARWADI VIDYALAYA.

Under the auspices of the Parsi Rajkiya Sabha a public lecture on Gujerat and Primary Education was delivered at the Marwadi Vidyalaya on Monday evening, Mr. Mavji Govindji Seth presiding.

The chairman in opening the proceedings said whether non-cooperators or cooperators they should have honesty of purpose and look to the good of the country and set aside all differences of opinion keeping always before the mind the general good of country.

Mr. G. B. Trivedi then said they should have compulsory primary education on the lines of England, Germany and other European countries. It was the late Mr. Gokhale who first brought his Bill for compulsory primary education in India but it was thrown out by Government on the ground that the country was not ripe for it. It was then Sir Ebrahim Rahimtoola who first as a member of the Executive Council set apart a larger amount for primary education in the Presidency than they had ever before. Dr. Paranjpe who followed him and took over the portfolio of public education recently appointed a committee to enquire into the question of primary education in the Presidency. The committee reported that Gujerat was backward in the matter of primary education. He thought it was a great slur on Gujerat. Gujerat was never backward in the matter of primary education. Even Mahatma Gandhi was in favour of primary education. Mahatma Gandhi was against the system but not against education itself. The non-cooperation movement in December last was in full swing in Gujerat and it may be that this influenced the minds of the members of the committee The committee did not know perhaps that Mr Amratlal Thakkar was doing his best to educate the Bhils and the depressed classes in Gujerat which showed that Gujerat was not a whit backward in the matter of education. Dr. Paranjpe's Bill of primary education, he thought, would be operative both in the municipal as well as local board areas. They would be asked first by Government as to whether they were ready for compulsory primary education and if ready what contribution they would make for the purpose. The Government contribution would be on the basis of the cooperation of the municipal and local boards. It would not be a compulsory primary education bill but a gradual compulsory primary education. When that bill was introduced Government were likely to impose more taxes for [illegible] be appealed to the audience not to mind such taxes as they would enlighten their children in the three R's. He hoped the Nadiad and Surat Municipalities would withdraw their non-cooperation with primary education.

Mr. Purshotamdas Pathak then said Gujerat had produced a Premchand Raichand who gave lakhs of rupees to the Calcutta University and a Tata who gave lakhs of rupees to the Bangalore Research Institute. To say that Gujerat was not ready for primary education or was backward was an insult to Gujerat. He appealed to his countrymen not to meddle with or obstruct the education of their young men, no matter from what source it came.

A vote of thanks to the chairman and the speakers terminated the proceedings.

ANJUMAN-I-ISLAM HIGH SCHOOL.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—It used to be the fashion to criticise the Anjuman-i-Islam of Bombay as being an anti-diluvian institution. Much water has flown under the bridge since the time and the institution has made real progress inspite of the subversive and disruptive attacks made on it.

The staff of the High School is well qualified most of the Assistant Masters being double graduates. For the last year or two the Educational Inspector of the Bombay Division who visited the school bore testimony to the enthusiasm of the staff.

Special provision for moral and religious instruction without being sectarian is a feature of our institution. The social life of the school has developed immensely. Annual races, prize distributions, social gatherings are always held. The school Debating Union is doing useful work since its inception. It holds its annual competitions and thus encourages elocution. Excursions are always undertaken under the guidance of competent teachers. An innovation has been introduced in the school by dramatic performance of scenes from Shakespeare. The Students' Library and reading room is also a feature of the institution. An idea of a school museum wherein the students can stock in all the curiosities that they may find in their daily rambles is being materialised.

The latest phase in the school activities is the idea to popularise the Boys' Scouts movement among the students, for which purpose a committee and a deputation have been appointed. The Committee appeals to the public at large for funds and the deputation will wait upon the leading gentry to enlist their sympathy and financial aid. The commercial importance of Gujarat to the mercantile classes of Muslim Bombay is realised. If a sufficient number of students with Gujarati as their mother tongue find their way to the institution arrangements can be made for that vernacular. Games have been provided for. If the school is supplied with funds we can easily consolidate our school and field activities into a permanent school Gymkhana.

We hope, sir, you will be kind enough to oblige our institution by publishing this short account and using your influence in favour of our institution which has long suffered from public negligence.—Yours, etc.

S. K. NABIULLAH,
President, Boys' Scout Committee.

BENGAL FLOODS RELIEF FUND.

RAMKRISHNA MISSION'S APPEAL.

The following appeal has been issued by the Ramakrishna Mission, Belur:—

It is refreshing to note that the flood is subsiding rapidly in some parts of the affected areas. Owing to want of food and fodder, men and women as well as cattle have been reduced to much distress, and will hardly be able to survive, if sufficient food is not distributed immediately. Moreover, it is apprehended that as winter is drawing near the ill-clad, emaciated and helpless people will not be able to bear the virulence of the cold but might fall victims to pneumonia, influenza, etc., and it is necessary that they should be provided with blankets and clothing for protection without delay. We have sent nearly 400 pieces new and old cloth for this purpose. Medicine and food are greatly needed because cholera and dysentry have appeared in the spot. At present we have taken up ninety villages as the area of our work. Distribution of rice has been commenced at all the centres. On October 12, we sent hundred maunds of rice, ten maunds of dal and five maunds of salt, kindly contributed by Messrs. S. D. Harry & Co., through one of our workers for distribution in the affected areas. We appeal to the generous public as well as to the other bodies that have been formed for collection of money, clothing and rice for relief in North Bengal, to contribute their mite.

Donations may be sent to the President, Ramakrishna Mission, Belur, Howrah; or the Secretary, R. K. Mission, I. Mukherjee Lane, Baghbazar, Calcutta.

ANGORA AND SMYRNA FUNDS.

A PROTEST AGAINST ALLEGED MISUSE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

DELHI, Oct. 22.

Moshir Hossain Kidwai of Godia, ex-President of the Oudh Provincial Khilafat Committee, in a letter to the Press, says that many Moslems like himself are extremely dissatisfied with the expenditure, in other spheres of work, of the money to be specially utilised for Angora and Smyrna, and that the funds taken from the public for special purposes should not be mis-spent on any other work, however important it might be for the Khilafat. He finds that the Working Committee of the Central Khilafat Committee has incurred liability for one lakh of rupees by mis-using the Smyrna Fund, and, therefore warns the Central Khilafat Committee and all Provincial Committees that even the unanimous vote of their respective Committees cannot justify or legalise the misuse. He adds that he is personally aware of the difficulties in the way of sending money to Angora and the wishes unanimously expressed by the Central Khilafat Committee, at its meeting in Delhi, that it is impossible and if possible a absolutely unsafe to send money to Angora. He therefore urges that Seth Chotani should pay special attention to prevent the mis-use or take upon himself the responsibility of presenting these funds to Ghazi Mustafa Kemal Pasha as soon as circumstances permit and considers that public money is absolutely safe with him. Finally he appeals to the public to continue to send money to Seth Chotani as no amount for the relief of Smyrna and Anatolia will be too much.

THE BOMBAY CHRONICLE,
Tuesday, October 24, 1922.

THE DEMAGOGUE AT BAY.

Mr. Lloyd George has the advantage of being a thoroughly well-advertised personality; and how great that advantage is in political England only politicians really know. It makes of him a centre of attraction for the vulgar on a par with Mary Pickford or a champion prize-fighter, and therefore an important asset to any political group with which he chooses to associate himself. If rumour does not lie, he has had the cleverness to make himself independent of the ordinary party funds, that is to say, free from control by any party. The Independent Liberals, we are told, have now three million pounds sterling in their war-chest, the Conservatives one million, while the Labour Party, though it has innumerable candidates, is impoverished by strikes and unemployment allowances". As a matter of mere curiosity we should like to know how much Mr. George possesses in his private war-chest. We should not be surprised to learn that he is as well-provided as the Independent Liberals.

But the greatest assets of the little wizard are his gay effrontery, his irrepressible vitality and his complete immunity from the attack of conscientious scruples. His speech at Leeds evinced these qualities—or defects—brilliantly. He claimed credit for his Irish, Indian and even his near Eastern policy, and his audience gave it to him with enthusiasm; forgetting in the glamour of his speech and personality the horrors which his Government had countenanced in Ireland, India and the Turkish Empire. Such power is in the spoken word, of one who has the gift of winning audiences. But the written word is quite another matter; and we can imagine the same audience who applauded the speaker, frowning dubiously over the speech next day when it was presented to them in cold print in the newspapers. We can remember a much greater orator, William Ewart Gladstone, whose speech had power to captivate his hearers, who when they saw the words in print, without the melody of voice, the charm of manner, were conscious of a sense of disappointment and deception. The triumphs of the demagogue are great, but they are momentary, like the triumphs of the singer and the acrobat. It must be perfectly evident to everyone who reads Mr. Lloyd George's speech at Leeds that anyone acquainted with the history of the past four years could easily have traversed every statement made in it. If Mr. George had admitted a mistake and failure here and there and merely claimed that he had done his best in difficult circumstances, it would have been much harder for his adversaries to confute him. But he made the claim of absolute, unqualified success, and, amid the plaudits of his hearers, no doubt felt successful. He did not think at that exciting moment of the chance which he was giving to opponents to demolish him. He did not think how the claim would appear to people when they read it in cold print. He forgot that, in great crises like the present, when the nation has at last been roused to think, it is the serious arguments, the facts that are conclusive, and a personal triumph such as he enjoyed at Leeds is no more helpful than a dose of alcoholic stimulant to one who has to face the nation's serious judgment.

The facs are against Mr. Lloyd George; and all his special pleading, all his self-advertisement, all his wizardry, impress us only as the wriggling of a captured animal. He has to face the reckoning for all his recklessness, for all the human misery which he has caused light-heartedly; and there are stalwart Englishmen of every party standing ready, armed with the facts, to make him pay the penalty. His Greek associations alone are quite enough to damn him, and we may be certain that the name of Sir Basil Zaharoff will figure largely in the literature of the next election. It stands for something which the English people will not tolerate. Mr. Lloyd George may wriggle as he pleases: he cannot escape.

THE PRINCE'S SPEECH.

When His Majesty King George returned to England after his first visit to this land as the Prince of Wales, he made a memorable speech at Guildhall in which he pointed out that the key-note of British policy in India should be goodwill and sympathy. That speech touched a responsive chord in the heart of every Indian and went a long way towards bridging the growing gulf between England and India. One is naturally reminded of that unforgettable utterance after reading Reuter's cabled summary of the speech which His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales made in the same hall on Friday and one cannot help contrasting the latter with the former and regretting that the Prince's words are not calculated to rouse the enthusiasm of the people of India who, despite all that has happened, continue to cherish the deepest feelings of loyalty and respect for the King-Emperor and his family.

Reviewing the history of the last four years Sir Valentine Chirol, in a recent article in the London "Times", has pointed out that the main cause of the present crisis in the British position in the East is the dishonesty of British policy. There was no lack of expressions of goodwill towards and sympathy with India's aspirations while the war was on and Britain was in need of India's help in men, money and material—help that was given spontaneously, ungrudgingly and on a magnificent scale. But no sooner was the war over than the British attitude towards India changed in an amazing manner. Her services in the war were forgotten, her rights were ignored and her feelings outraged. In place of the genuine goodwill and sympathy for which the King-Emperor, as Prince of Wales, had eloquently pleaded, Britain presented India with the Rowlatt Act, the Punjab and the betrayal of Islam. Sir Valentine Chirol underrates the wrong done to India when he says: "In India, the effect of a really generous attempt to meet Indian political aspirations by great constitutional reforms has been largely nullified by the dishonest evasions to which recourse was had after the repression of the Punjab troubles of 1919 and by the conflict of views over the Turkish peace terms between the Imperial Government and the Government of India." But not the least cruel wrong done to India was the forcing of the Prince of Wales' visit on an unwilling India, the exploiting of that visit for advertising the "benign" British rule and thus misleading the world as to the reality of the situation in the country. The people of India, through their national assembly and in a thousand different ways, had made it clear that, while their country was seething with discontent, while they were still groaning under the outrages of the Punjab and the Khilafat, it was a grievous wrong against the Prince and the Royal Family, to whom they were deeply attached, as well as against themselves to bring him to the country. They demanded that the visit be postponed to a time when India, fully reconciled to Britain, could give the Prince the welcome she longed to give him. But her sentiments were flouted and the bureaucracy persisted in the blunder for propagandist purposs of its own. The country responded to the challenge of the bureaucracy by boycottong all the functions connected with the visit. So far as the Prince himself was concerned, the attitude of the country was best expressed by Mahatma Gandhi, when he wrote: "Any injury or insult to the Prince by us will be a greater wrong done by us to India and Islam than any the English have done." The Prince of Wales' visit was heralded by repression and during the time that His Royal Highness remained in India the repression grew stronger in volume until it culminated in the arrest of the people's idol, the Mahatma, on the eve of his departure. That is an eloquent commentary on the success of the visit.

His Royal Highness said at Guildhal that "the objects of his visit to India were firstly to learn as much as possible about the great continent and the latest partner in the British Commonwealth of Nations, who had won her place by progress under our rule and sacrifices in a common cause in the great war. The second object was to thank the Princes of Indian States (why not also the people of the Indian States?) and the people of British India for their services during the four and half critical years as well as to see India's fighting forces and to enquire into the conditions of lives of India's ex-service men." What opportunities were permitted to the Prince to learn as much as possible about the real India and how the thanks of Britain were conveyed to India for her services in the war it is not necessary to enquire. The bureaucracy took care to see that the Prince saw nothing that it did wish him to see and learn nothing that it did not think fit for him to learn. And so we find the Prince saying that "he had continual opportunity of realising the complexity and difficulty of the work of the Civil Service", and that "as a result of conversations with leaders of all parties who were working to make a success of the new constitution, he was glad to find that public health and sanitation were two main objects occupying their thoughts." As for the great bulk of the people, the Prince said: "There is unfortunately another section, who set themselves in opposition to the new constitution and who were active while I was in India. But conflict of ideas are inevitable in a vast country with a population of over three hundred millions containing all races and all creeds." Thus the Prince has shown himself an apt pupil of those who exploited his position for their own ends. It is fair to conclude from his speech that he left India as he had come, knowing little, if anything, of the feeling in India, of the unhard-of campaign of repression in the country, and of the fact that, as the Mahatma wrote at the time, "the Punjab wound is still bleeding, that the treachery towards India in the matter of the Khilafat is still rankling in every Indian breast and that, on the Government's own admission, the Reformed Councils contain members who though nominally elected, do not in any sense represent even the few lakhs who are on the electoral roll." It is no wonder, therefore, that his speech has failed to evoke that response from every Indian heart that was won by his father's speech on a similar occasion.

Notes of the Day

The Russian Danger.

Well may the Soviet Government have expressed astonishment in a bluntly worded note to Britain at the silence which has greeted their demand for the representation of Russia, "as a Power most vitally concerned", at the Near East Peace Conference. Without Russia, the Conference will be a farce and, we predict, a failure. Mustafa Kemal Pasha has already stated that he is unable, owing to the terms of his alliance with the Moscow Government, to conclude a peace to which Russia is not a party. After that definite statement it seems sheer waste of time to call a Conference without the representatives of Russia. As practically the only point left open between Great Britain and Turkey, the only point which the Conference will have to settle, is the question of the Straits, it seems absurd to say that that question shall be treated separately afterwards, and that "the Black Sea States, Russia, Turkey, the Ukraine and Bulgaria have been invited to participate in this but, with the exception of the Porte, will be excluded from a wider conference which is expected to meet at Lausanne on November 13." It seems to us that Moscow is right in objecting that the question of the Straits is not "detachable for consideration at a separate conference after kindred matters have been previously settled," since the decisions on those "kindred matters" are pretty sure to prejudice the Question of the Straits. We have already emphasised the importance of the Straits to Russia. As a highway they are of more importance to her than to any other Power; so much so that Russia must go to war with any Power or Powers, other than Turkey which may seek military control of the waterway. It is not a question of Bolshevik or Menshevik or Czarist Policy; it is a question of the very life of Russia. A Czarist Government, in the same circumstances, would have taken up the same position which the Soviet Government has taken up. So long as Russia's just demand is flouted, there is fear of war; that must be evident to everybody on the spot; and the marvel is that the peril does not yet appear to have been recognised by the Allied Governments, who could so easily avert it, at the same time securing a much wider and more satisfactory settlement.

In Eastern Thrace.

We were informed a little while ago from Athens that the whole Christian population of Eastern Thrace was desirous of emigrating to escape the Turkish yoke. We pointed out at the time that more than half the Christian population of Eastern Thrace were Bulgarians who had been made to suffer only less than the Muslim majority under the Greek occupation, whereas they had been quite contented under Turkish rule; we also mentioned how, in 1913, when a plebiscite was taken after the Balkan Wars, the whole population of Thrace, almost without exception, wished for Turkish rule. That is to say, we knew the "information" from Athens to be false, and gave our reasons for so judging it. Now we hear from Constantinople that "in the British area of Thrace there is nothing to report, and in the French area the Allied missions are working in conjunction with the Greek authorities to reassure the inhabitants and to prevent the carrying off of the property of those not wishing to leave." (Our italics). We have no doubt that if the Greek propagandists could have had their way, the whole Christian population of Thrace would have been forced to emigrate by intimidation, of which "the carrying off of the property of those not wishing to leave" is only one, and not the strongest, form. And we cannot help imagining that, but for the British Government's past bias in favour of the Greeks, which makes British officers averse to laying stress on their misdeeds, as one is averse to washing dirty linen in public, there would have been precisely the same news from the British area of Thrace as from the French, and we should not have been treated to the statement: "There is nothing to report." For the benefit of our readers, we may say that the work of reassuring the inhabitants is necessary not on account of the return to Turkish Government but on account of the people's fear of the behaviour of the Greeks in retreat. The vast majority of the population of Thrace have nothing to fear and much to hope from the restoration of their land to Turkish sovereignty. It is only active partisans of the Greek occupation—quite a small minority—men who have robbed and brutalised their Muslim and Bulgarian neighbours in the last three years,—who wish to emigrate through fear of the returning Turks, and carry with them everything that they can lay their hands on.

Labour Prospects in the Next Election.

Apropos the approaching General Election in Great Britain and the prospects of a Labour Government, the following information should prove very interesting. The reactionary British Press, led by organs like the "Morning Post," is not tired of enlightening John Bull that Trade Unionism, representing the disciplined force of organised Labour, is decaying if not dead, as a result of Labour's entry into politics. It is certainly a fact that compared to 1920, when the Trade Union membership in Britain reached 8¼ million, the official figures at the end of 1921 shows a total of 6.793 million. The Trade Unions Congress of 1921 was representative of 6,417,910 members, that of 1922 represented only 5,127,50'. Both these sets of figures show a decline of 20 per cent. But this need not be considered discouraging to the prospects of a Labour victory. For the total membership at the end of 1921 was about 50 per cent. stronger than in 1913. The decline, moreover, has been brought about by the weeding out of the weaker members who could never have contributed much towards the strength and solidarity of the Union discipline. The remainder may be regarded as the stalwarts of the Labour organisation, constituting a consolidation of forces. The number of Unions fell from 1425 to 1296 in 1921, which will largely effect the decline in membership. Besides, the decline may be explained by the pecuniary demands of Union membership which may be hard to support during a period of acute unemployment. But that need not prevent the old members from voting for Labour at the General Election.

Malabar Enquiry.

The Hon. Raja Vasudeva of Kollengode and "a number of other leading gentlemen of Calicut District" have, according to the Calicut correspondent of a contemporary, issued a manifesto, "in the name of the Hindu public of Malabar", dissociating themselves from the activities of the Committee appointed by the Congress to enquire into the causes of the recent Moplah outbreak. We do not think the Hon. Raja and his co-signatories have any title to speak in the name of the Hindu public of Malabar, for it is impossible to imagine any responsible body of men putting their signatures to the following gross misrepresentation of the aims of the Committee and of the Congress which has nominated it:

> "The Congress-cum-Khilafat propaganda is the direct and the proximate cause of the Moplah outburst. A Committee of Enquiry nominated by and consisting of Congressmen or their sympathisers is like a committee of criminals sitting to judge the enormity of their own crimes. This body cannot lay claim to the least semblance of impartiality. It is an insult to the sufferers from this rebellion that representatives of the perpetrators of the mischief should now parade here as a tribunal of enquiry. Congress and Khilafat leaders have as may be seen from their public utterances prejudged the case. Their setting up of some of their followers as a tribunal of enquiry is a trick, the sole purpose of which is the whitewashing of the character and activities of the local Congress party and of their friends and ally, the Moplah rebel."

Misquided.

The Congress represents the nation. The Moplahs, who took part in the rebellion, were part of the nation. Therefore, the nation was responsible for the rebellion. The Hon. Raja of Kollengode and his colleagues are also part of the nation. Therefore, they were also responsible for the rebellion. That is the line of reasoning which the signatories of the precious manifesto adopt and which they would themselves repudiate if they realise the absurdity of the conclusion to which it inevitably leads. It is, however, not difficult to discover the source from which the suggestion to discredit the Enquiry Committee is evidently derived. There are people to whose interest it is to prevent the exposure of the truth about the Moplah rebellion and the ignoble part played by them before, during and after it. It is into the hands of these people that the Raja of Kollengode and his colleagues are playing by their ill-natured and unwarranted attack on the Congress. The country has full confidence in the Committee appointed by their chosen national assembly and misguided men like the Raja of Kollengode merely betray the vital interests of their country by putting obstacles in the way of the discovery of the truth.

The Rent Act.

In view of the Rent Act Amendment Bill, special interest attaches to the interim report of the Committee appointed by the Government in England. The report, Reuter tells us, has been issued with a view to dissipating the widespread anxiety on the part of householders and other tenants that the war-time Act against eviction and unreasonable increase in rent might be removed when it expires next June. This should dispose of the specious argument advanced on behalf of landlords that the Rent Act being a War-time measure should be repealed altogether. The British Committee advises that protection should not be withdrawn though it recognises that certain amendments to the Act are necessary in the light of experience, which will be submitted later. The report of the Select Committee on the Rent Act Amendment Bill has not yet been published. But from reports that have reached us, there is considerable ground for the misgiving that its recommendations will be most unsatisfactory. Public opinion must, therefore, remain alert as well as firm on this question.

"The Rajasthan Patrika."

We welcome the "Rajasthan Patrika," an Anglo-Gujarati weekly published from Ranpur, Kathiawad. The journal will be mainly devoted to the discussion of the problems of Indian States from a purely national standpoint. Mr. Mansukhlal R. Mehta, who is the Editor of the journal, is less than just to Indian papers which, he thinks, handle questions relating to Indian States "in such a way as not to rouse in them sense of duty and spirit of nationalism." We, however, wish all success to the "Rajasthan Patrika" in its object of stimulating "patriotic consciousness and spirit of nationalism" among Indian States.

GENERAL ELECTION PROSPECTS

MANY UNCERTAIN FACTORS

WILL MR. LAW APPEAL TO THE COUNTRY?

BRITISH OFFICIAL WIRELESS.

LEAFIELD (Oxford), Oct, 23 (Midnight).

Until Mr. Bonar Law announces his intentions, it must remain uncertain whether he intends to carry on the Government with a Conservative Administration or whether he will call for a general election. It is widely assumed, however, that he will choose to appeal to the country. How the electorate would vote in such a contingency is a matter for speculation. A vast number of women, added to the voting registers, constitutes an uncertain political element and the male electorate has changed considerably since the last general Election. There would no longer be a plain choice as in pre-war days between the Conservative, Liberal and Labour Parties. All the political parties are in a more or less fissiparous condition, and there would, probably, be the Ministerial Conservatives, the Conservative followers of Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Lloyd George, the Liberals, Independent Liberals and Labour, and a large sprinkling of independent candidates. There would, doubtless, be party arrangements in various constituencies, but under such circumstances almost any political result is possible.

LL. G.'S RETICENCE.

Mr. Lloyd George's speech at Leeds yesterday did not reveal his intentions. It is generally assumed that he will not make these known until Mr. Bonar Law has made public the political programme he intends to follow. Mr. Bonar Law, who again had audience of the King last night, will to-morrow be elected the Leader of his Party at the conservative meeting, after which he will assume the Premiership. The announcement is made that Mr. Reginald McKenna, a prominent banker, who was the Chacellor of Exchequer in the Asquith Liberal administration is to speak on behalf of Mr. Bonar Law and the Conservatives. As a result of the Representation of the People Act of 1918, the British electorate was more than double and now numbers over twenty millions. The general election of 1918 was an apeal to the expanded electorate but the conditions of that election were such that no one regards the result as offering any safe guide as to what may happen now. The war had just ended and the joy of freedom from its horrors was a factor largely in the public mind. The franchise had then just been given to a large body of new electors, many of whom were soldiers and sailors at the front or at sea. It was a small poll in 1918, the average being less than fifty per cent. It is believed that this would be greatly exceeded were an election now held.

MR. CHURCHILL AS LIBERAL FREE TRADER.

TO CO-OPERATE WITH MODERATE CONSERVATISM,

POSSIBILITY OF A CENTRE PARTY.

LONDON, Oct. 22.

Mr. Churchill's continued belief in the possibility of a Centre Party, emerges from a letter he has sent to his constituents in Dundee from sickbed, declaring that he proposed to stand as a Liberal Free Trader but hopes to co-operate freely with the sober-minded, progressive Conservatives in defending the country and the Empire against the Socialist and Communist menace on the one hand and downright reaction on the other.

LLOYD GEORGE'S RESIGNATION.

U. P. PRESS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

LUCKNOW, Oct. 21.

Commenting on what it terms "Dismissal of Mr. Lloyd George", "The Indian Daily Telegraph" says the enemy of Asia is unhorsed, his lance is broken. The disappearance of the man who had of late systematically spurned at the Eastern peoples is certainly a great relief. India sadly needed this, although there is inevitable anxiety whether from the frying pan of the Coalition we may be progressing to the fire of the Conservatives, whether Lord Peel of the Coalition will be succeeded by a "Morning Post" diehard.

Referring to the effect on India of the change of government "The Leader" says no doubt the previous policy will continue and there is no reason to think that it will change for the better.

"The Independent" welcomes the change, and says all honest men must prefer to deal with the downright and candid Junkerism rather than with the same thing cloaked in smug platitudes of alleged liberalism.

PUNJAB PRESS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

LAHORE, Oct. 21.

News of the resignation of Mr. Lloyd George and the fall of Coalition did not cause much sensation here as yesterday was a holiday and most of the papers were not published.

The Mahomedans generally and Khilafatists are jubilant over Mr. Lloyd George's resignation.

The "Muslim Outlook", a daily organ of Mussalmans, rejoices at the resignation of Mr. Lloyd George and says:—The "Welsh Wizard" has gone and with him has gone, we hope, for ever, the Near East policy and Egyptian policy and Indian policy which have brought nothing but unhappiness to Turkey, Egypt and India, discredit, even ignominy, to Great Britain. He who wronged the Turks as no Christian ever wronged another nation, he who insulted Indians as no responsible statesman ever insulted a helpless race, he who bullied Egypt as no one man ever trampled on a historic people, has now made his final exit from the scene of his unworthy plots and mischievous actions. Muslim India thanks God that there is no more Mr. Lloyd George the Prime Minister.

The "Tribune" says Mr. Lloyd George with all his glaring fault had both his liberal traditions and his moment of illumination such as come only to men of genius. Mr. Bonar Law is both a mediocrity, and is steeped in the traditions of a Party which has never been favourably disposed towards freedom. This is no small disadvantage, whatever may be said on the other side.

The "Civil and Military Gazette" in the course of a leading article headed "The End of the Coalition" to-day writes:—It is rather a strange coincidence that the downfall of the apparently immutable Minister should have come about so suddenly, and in a manner which is charactoristic of French rather than British politics. We can understand and appreciate the feeling among the Conservatives that they ought to have a policy and a Government of their own after all these years of working in double harness. But we confess to having grave misgiving as to the result of this cleavage among forces which stand between the country and the domination of Labour. At all events we see no sign that dissatisfaction with Government's handling of the Near Eastern situation had anything to do with the Conservative Party's decision and we may recall that Mr. Bonar Law, the new Premier, upheld that policy in all essentials.

DELHI, Oct. 21.

The dramatic news of the resignation of Mr. Lloyd George was only known here last night and was generally received with mingled feelings of surprise and indifference. The Nationalist leaders are reluctant to express any opinion.

The "Eastern Mail" says that the long-expected has happened, and much sooner than was expected for the great offender has at last resigned and in doing so has created quite a furore. The paper advises the ex-Premier to go into retirement, as his life was a strenuous one and he has served the country well.

TURKISH ECONOMIC PROGRAMME

GREECE TO PAY INDEMNITY

FOREIGNERS AND "CONCESSIONS."

(REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.)

LONDON, Oct. 22.

Constantinople.—Details of the Turkish economic programme, filtering through from Angora, reveal that efforts are being planned to transfer the Ottoman Public Debt to Greece as indemnity. The National Assembly has already disavowed debts contracted in Constantinople since the Armistice and has now decided to wipe out all commercial concessions and contracts from which foreigners in future will be rigidly exluded. The foregoing, if admitted at the peace conference, will effectively strangle foreign trade.

NEW TURKISH GOVERNOR OF EAST THRACE

OVATION IN CONSTANTINOPLE.

A "Statesman" Special Cable, dated London, October 20, says:—

A picturesque account is given by a Constantinople correspondent of a demonstration on the occasion of the arrival of General Rafet Pasha, the new Governor of East Thrace, which the correspondent describes as one of the most remarkable demonstrations ever seen in Constantinople. For over an hour a solid stream of humanity, hot and tired but jubilant, rolled past a point where the correspondent was stationed. In Galata there were Turks all degrees and all ages, soldiers, civilians, women and children. As they passed rose leaves and confetti were showered on them while school children lining the roads lustily sang patriotic songs. It was a most remarkable and impressive sight. The proceedings were quite orderly, although among the crowd were large numbers of roughs who looked capable of any mischief.

Owing to some mistake in the arrangements Rafet Pasha did not land until three o'clock and the unfortunate children had to stand six hours, their only refreshment being a little water. Finally, heralded by applause, a carriage and pair drove past with half a dozen Nationalist officers and a crowd of Turkish youths running alongside. Then followed a procession of cars, carriages and pedestrians, a battalion of local troops, a contingent of gendarmerie and pupils of all the military schools, dervishes playing tambourines, and a number of students of both sexes, the girls being unveiled. Here and there could be seen men wearing the old-fashioned janissary uniform, and others the costumes of the interior. It was a most astonishing medley, but its point was to demonstrate "Constantinople for the Turks."

HOW PESHAWAR RECEIVED NEWS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

PESHAWAR, Oct. 23.

The news of Mr. Lloyd George's fall was not known in Peshawar till the 22nd, and opinion on the subject is not yet crystallised. The first impression is one of satisfaction—that one who is popularly regarded as the enemy of Islam has come to grief. Party politics are not understood among the rural and trans-Frontier people, and it is unlikely that the change of Premier will arouse much interest.

RUSSIAN TRADE

SOVIET'S AGREEMENT WITH GERMAN "TRUST"

NEW TRADING COMPANY TO BE ESTABLISHED.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.)

LONDON, Oct. 22.

Berlin.—A message from Moscow says that the Soviet Government has ratified the agreement with the Otto Wolff Consortium, comprising a number of large German industrial works, whereby a Russo-German trading Company will be established with a capital of three hundred thousand gold roubles and have trade concession for export and import purposes. The Consortium will grant the Company goods credit to the value of seven and a half million gold roubles and a further five million to the Russian Government.

NEW GLIDING RECORD.

"DAILY MAIL" PRIZE WON BY FRENCHMAN.

A new world Gliding record was established at Lewis yesterday when a Frenchman, Money Rolle, won the Thousand Pounds Prize, offered by the "Daily Mail" with a flight of three hours twenty-one minutes. The previous record flight of three hours six, minutes was made in Germany. The Englishman Olley also broke the world's record by Gliding with passenger for forty-nine minutes.

HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR INDIA.

MR. NEOGI TO URGE APPOINTMENT OF INDIAN.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

CALCUTTA, Oct. 23.

The Associated Press is informed that Mr. K. C. Neogi, M.L.A., intends to take the earliest opportunity, during the Delhi session, to bring forward the resolution of which he had given notice in August last, urging the appointment of an Indian as High Commissioner for India in London.

SIND PROVINCIAL CONFERENCE.

Mr. Abdul Jabar, a non-co-operating pleader and popular leader of Sind has been elected President of the Sind Provincial Conference which meets at Larkana on the 3rd Nov. and following days. Arrangements are in the hands of an energetic reception committee, whose chairman is Mr Rijhoomal Lahori. Preparations are also being made for holding a swadeshi exhibition.

A COMPLAINT RE-VOTING LISTS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

RANGOON, Oct. 23.

Further information from the Districts shows candidates for the Legislative Council everywhere and contests in about half the constituences. The complaint made that printed lists of votes for Rangoon constituencies were not available is answered. It was on the ground of practical difficulties in printing in time, apart from the question of the cost.

EARNINGS OF STATE RAILWAYS.

FALL SHORT OF BUDGET ESTIMATE.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

SIMLA, Oct. 20.

The total approvimate gross earnings of State Railways from 1st April to 7th Oct. 1922 amounted to Rs. 45.49 Crores. The Budget estimate for the current year was framed in anticipation of total gross earnings of Rs. 99.5 Crores, and the results of 27 weeks given above have fallen short of the estimate for that period by Rs. 477 lakhs.

Steady improvement noticed during last few weeks has had a set back, results for the week being 13 lakhs less than the earnings for the previous week. The Great Indian Peninsula and the Eastern Bengal Railways are largely responsible for the shortage. Traffic has not yet come up to expectations. Shortage is especially noticeable on the Great Indian Peninsula and the North Western and the Eastern Bengal Railways on account of less coaching and goods traffic and on the East Indian Railway owing to less goods traffic than as expected.

MESSAGE OF KHADI.

MRS. NAIDU AT MADURA

MAHATMA'S "CIRCLE OF LIBERTY" EXPLAINED.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

MADURA, Oct. 15.

Srimati Sarojini Naidu in the course of her speech on Friday the 13th instant, at the Sri Meenakshi Central Town Hall, Madura, said.

I can heartily express to you—who are all the children of the Sri Meenakshi Devi—the emotions with which I come to your City. I am now come with an intention of the southern pilgrimage upon me. I realise that the two important places of pilgrimage that must lie at the heart of every Hindu, are the one at Kasi and the other at Rameswaram. But, alas, instead of seeing huge crowds of pilgrims, in the camp at Mandapam, I found the children of the Tamil country, holding on their way to Ceylon for making their livelihood. When I saw that the children of the Tamil Nadu could not find food and clothes in their own country and were proceeding to foreign countries with a disgust to their motherland, to me in all its fullest aims and significance came the message given to the people of India by Mahatma Gandhi and that is the message about the attainment of Swaraj for India.

TRAGEDY OF INDIAN EMIGRATION.

I am very much ashamed to find so many hundreds leaving India, the land of the Annapporna Devi, in utter disgust in order to find out their living and there can be no political freedom in this land as long as this state of affairs continued and the people did not care to help their poor countrymen. In a country which is noted for its weaving industries, we find men, women, and children going out to foreign soils for finding out their food and clothes. What is political freedom? On what foundations do you intend to build the head of the Swaraj? Is it not a real disgrace? Your academic resolutions would not do. Are you in right earnest in the object of attaining your political freedom? Are your going to prove that we are men? What is the spirit of economic slavery excepting the spiritual slavery? What is the spirit of spiritual slavery excepting your intellectual slavery? I say of you, that you are responsible the more educated, you are, the higher your rank, the higher your responsibility. I who am no politician in platform lectures (Cheers) but a mother and woman interpret the message in the light of the passion with which the mother loves her country. Think of the Indians who seek charity at the hands of the Ceylon Government and the Ceylon planters, because the Tamil Nadu had nothing to spare for them in their own country!

Mahatma Gandhi's Programme is one which excludes no section of the Indian people. It is not a programme of hatred or conflict, it is not a programme of boycott. It is a programme which means spiritual discipline in every corner of the land. Under this programme everyone could do a good lot for the uplift of his country while sitting in his own house. A weaver was doing the greatest service to his country and also to his countrymen. You are prepared to send your heritage across the sea and buy your heritage at the cost of your agricultural liberty. Redeem yourselves and the people, and redeem them by your own sacrifice for the uplift of the country.

MESSAGE OF KHADI.

Those of you who would have read the writings of the ancient Chinese travellers or the Greek historians and by those pilgrims of the West who made voyages to this land of manifold wisdom, you must remember, how those writers had to pay their tribute to the intellectual and spiritual wealth of India to her material prosperity. Always and everywhere I repeat the story that Mahatma Gandhi and his wife Kasthuri Bai have told me and have told the people that while they were travelling round the famine stricken land, they noticed several people half-starving and dying of hunger and in filthy rags, he asked them "Sisters, why are you crying? see, that Mahanadi flows before you; why do you come with flinching rags upon you" They said to Mahatmaji. If we take all these foul rags for washing, how are we to cover our bodies without these filthy rags? The gospel of Swadeshi is the gospel of Mahatma Gandhi. What is the meaning of Swadeshi,?

Swadeshi means, feeding of the poor; it means supporting the poor people of the country. It means not sending our Indians to foreign countries for finding out their livelihood. What is Khaddi?

It does not mean coarse cloth alone. It means that which is hand-spun and hand-woven and can be as fine as Dacca Muslin. (Hear, hear.) By your intentions, by your persistence and influenced endeavours you will be able to do what had enable them in all other parts of the country to make Khadi. If you want to revive that past glory of the country and if you want the economic progress of your country, you should use only Khaddi. It is the revival of the self-respect of a fallen nation. The use of Khadi makes you pure in thought, word and deed. I must tell you that it is therefore the duty of every Indian, man or woman, to take to Khadi and the spinning wheel.

MAHATMA'S CIRCLE OF LIBERTY

Mahatma's Circle of Liberty has four centres. A section of this is the question of the removal of untouchability. No such thing as untouchability is sanctioned in any religion. This curse of untouchability only serves to divide us and thus bring about unnecessary and petty factions amongst us. If you want to attain independance for our nation you must show an united front. This curse of untouchability makes us disunited. God is our Father and in the sight of God all of us are brothers. So if any consider any one of the children of God as Untouchables, no Hindu would descend to the level of saying that. No Hindu should consider another Hindu as untouchable and prevent him from entering the common place of worship, this Shrine of Goddess Sri Meenakshi Devi. If any one did so, the wrath of the divine Sakthi would be on him. You all know that Mahatma Gandhi one day asked his wife, not about the welfare of his own children but of that little Lakshmi. In that one question he summed up the Great message. Lakshimi is a little untouchable child and an adopted daughter of the Mahatma.

The next item in the programme of Mahatma Gandhi is Hindu-Muslim Unity. I think that there are many Mussalman brethern in this illuminated room (Cheers) and to them I say that whoever be a Mussalman, carries with him the heavy responsibility in his heart and on his head. I believe that the question of the Khilafat struggle is a God-send to the Hindu race. Because the followers of Islam have their attribution to the common welfare of a nation with a Prophet of Islam, made a living reality in the world for the first time about 1300 years ago.

UNTOUCHABILITY.

The fourth item of Mahatma Gandhi's programme is temperance. I should consider it an insult to Hindus and Muslims to talk to them on the subject. In this question all should join together, both official and non-official Hindus, Muslims, Parsees or Christians, men or women. This is a question on a common ground. I feel all the four items of the constructive programme of Mahatma Gandhi are quite agreeable to one and all of you alike and that we shall have all the difficulties and indeed our political conflict solved by following the constructive programme. This programme will also tend to establish discipline amongst us. Friends, therefore, we shall fight this noble fight for freedom. I thank you for the honour you have done me, men and women of Madura, for the kind and generous welcome. I hope that Sri Meenakshi Devi will help us in winning the freedom of the people of this country. The Shakti Devi will certainly help those who come to her shrine in attaining Swaraj for India. The Shakti Devi, Sri Meenakshi is here. You go to her Shrine, worship her and make up your mind to serve your country and come forward with courage, devotion, and sacrifice. Show to the world your sacrifice and make it a lesson for other countries to follow. (Loud and continued applause).

Mr. S. Somasundara Barathi then gave out the gist of the speech in tamil alluding to the four items of Mahatma Gandhi, as the four pillars of the pandal of Swaraj, after which the meeting came to a close.

BI AMMA AT BIJAPUR

EXHORTS PEOPLE TO WORK VIGOROUSLY

INTERVIEW WITH MAHOMED ALI.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

BIJAPUR, Oct. 23.

Bi-Amma, Begum Mahomed Ali and party arrived at Bijapur on Friday last, for interview with Moulana Mahomed Ali. The party was received at the Railway station, by the Local Congress and Khilafat leaders. Bi Amma and Mrs. Mahomed Ali addressed a huge meeting the same evening. Bi Amma lucidly explained the present situation, referring particularly to the splendid achievement of Ghazi Mustapha Kemal Pasha and its bearing upon the Khilafat, and the critical position of England, which had by her pro-Greek policy alienated the sympathy not only of India but of Italy and France and other nations. She exhorted the audience to work more vigorously for the furtherance of the Congress Programme.

She warned them that if the present opportunity was allowed to slip by, they would be the greatest sinners and would repent hereafter. She eulogised the Akalis on their magnificent display of non-violent spirit and unflinching fortitude in facing repression at Guru-ka-Bagh. Begum Mahomed Ali also made a stirring speech and appealed to all in eloquent terms to sacrifice everything they had for "Swaraj". Two more meetings were held for ladies and the untouchables. The interview took place on the 21st evening. The party left yesterday for Bombay and was accorded a great ovation.

VACUUM OIL COMPANY DIVIDENDS.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Oct. 23.

With reference to Reuter's telegram from New York of 18th October to the effect that the Vacuum Oil Company had declared a dividend of three hundred per cent, the General Manager of the above Company in India, having cabled to his Head Office on the subject, is advised that the action which the Directors have taken has evidently been misunderstood. The Directors have recommended that a portion of the surplus accumulated during many years be transferred to the Capital Account, which does not increase the equity of any shareholders, because the present value of shares will be reduced in proportion to the new stock.

JAMSHEDPUR STRIKE.

SETTLED AMICABLY.

CONCILIATORY ATTITUDE OF AUTHORITIES.

The Secretary, Labour Association, Jamshedpur, wires under date the 23rd. inst:—

On last Friday evening, the following order was issued by Mr. Lewis, Deputy Commissioner, Singhbhum from his camp at Jamshedpur:—

STRIKERS' ACTIVITIES DECLARED ILLEGAL.

Whereas it has been made to appear to me from reports submitted to me by police officers and it is further a matter of my own personal observation that this morning many hundreds of strikers were loitering on and beside the roads, path and byways within the town of Jamshedpur, for the purpose of preventing persons who wished to work in the workshops of the Tata Iron and Steel Co. and did in fact prevent persons who wished to work, therefore do I W. R. Lewis, Deputy Commissioner of Singhbhum, within his jurisdiction the town of Jamshedpur lies, hereby pass these orders under sec 144 of the Code of Criminal Procedure prohibiting any person or persons from loitering on or besides any road, path, byway or other route used by the public within the town of Jamshedpur for the purpose of preventing by any means persons from passing either to their work or to their homes or any lawful business. This order will remain in force for two months unless previously withdrawn.

Given under my hand and the seal of this court this 20th day of Oct. 1922 (sd). W.E. Lewis, Deputy Commissioner Singhbhum. Camp, Jamshedpur.

MR. CHAMANLAL ON THE SCENE.

The above order was quite unjustified under the circumstances. There have been no cases of violence or breach of peace to justify the order under sec. 144 Cr. P. C. The strikers have been marvellously peaceful all along. Mr. D. Chamanlal arrived here on Friday evening. There were thousands or men on the station to receive him. As soon as the train stopped on the platform, there were repeated shouts of Chamanlal-sahib-ki-jai. A huge torch light procession brought him to the town. A meeting was held on the G. Town maidan just after his arrival and the men were exhorted not to picket until Mr. Chamanlal had time to study the situation.

Next morning Mr. Chamanlal and Mr. Sethi had an interview with the Deputy Commissioner and the Deputy Inspector-General of Police. Mr. Chamanlal impressed upon them the necessity of withdrawing orders under sec. 144 and said that man would have to contemplate the question of defiance of the orders, if not withdrawn, because peaceful picketing was the incontestable right of Indian workers. The matter was left open for a day. A mass meeting attended by 100,000 men on the evening of the 21st passed unanimously a resolution placing the workers' cause in Mr. Chamanlal's hands and declaring that they would abide by his decision. On the morning of the 22nd there was a prolonged interview between the Deputy Commissioner, Mr. Chamanlal and Sethi at which written replies were given by Mr. Chamanlal to the Deputy Commissioner's questions regarding peaceful picketing, its nature, its necessity and the law on the subject.

ORDER WITHDRAWN.

A short time after the interview, the Deputy Commissioner announced that orders under section 144 Cr. P. C. would be withdrawn at one o'clock. Mr. Chamanlal interviewed Mr. T. W. Tutwiller, General Manager and an amicable settlement was arrived at on the basis of the offer made by the former at a mass meeting attended by about 15,000 persons.

The terms of the settlement arrived at by Mr. Chamanlal are:—All men to resume work, which means no victimisation. They will get full pay. A joint committee of representatives to meet and discuss all the demands, grievances etc. Lastly reorganisation of the union to be undertaken by the Trade Union Congress and meeting to be arranged at Bombay for the purpose.

A FAVOURABLE SETTLEMENT.

The men were told that in view of the settlement work would be resumed at 6 next morning. It was a great moment for the strikers. They were overjoyed to hear the news of a favourable settlement. Mr. Chamanlal congratulated the Deputy Commissioner on his forbearance and tactfulness, the men on their courage and peaceful behaviour, Mr. Sethi, Secy, on his able handling of a difficult situation and Mr. Tutwiller on his frank and conciliatory attitude. On behalf of the Association Mr. Sethi thanked Messrs. Tutwiller and Lewis for their sympathetic attitude and the strikers for their marvellously peaceful behaviour, all through the strike. The meeting ended with shouts of Chamanlal Sahib-ki-jai. All the men resumed work this morning. Mr. Chamanlal leaves for the Punjab to-night.

AMICABLE SETTLEMENT.

Mr. Baptista sends us the following telegram he received from Mr. Chamanlal on Sunday from Jamshedpur:—

Strike settled amicably on terms as suggested by us previously congratulations.

EXIT LL. G.

NATIONALISTS WELCOME THE CHANGE.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

SIMLA, Oct. 21.

The downfall of Mr. Lloyd George is the sole topic of conversation throughout the station and further developments are watched with the keenest interest. The rapidity with which the crisis has developed, culminating in Government's resignation has caused even greater surprise than the resignation of the Premier itself. Public opinion has not yet crystallised over the event, but it is apparent that the news has been received with mixed feelings. Official circles are naturally very cautious in expressing their views, but it is evident that there is a great desire on their part for the installation of a stable Government at Whitehall. Every telegram from London is scanned by them with avidity and great hopes are entertained in the results of the forthcoming changes in the constitution of the British Cabinet. Whether those changes will be for the benefit of this country or not is, however, a matter of doubt and speculation. Non-official Indian opinion in Simla being in a fluid state, it is somewhat difficult to represent it fully. But there is no gainsaying the fact that considerable relief is felt everywhere at the disappearance of Mr. Lloyd George who, whatever his abilities, has not been a friend of India. It is generally believed that he was the enemy of all constitutional progress in India and one who never hesitated to throw to the winds the interests of this vast sub-continent to suit his own political ends or to safeguard his own power and position.

MODERATES PERTURBED.

But the nationalist section is decidedly glad at the exit of Mr. George who has been experimenting on India's patience for the last so many years and taking every opportunity to place all obstacles in the path of progress. His participation in the passage of the Reform Bill is not considered such as to justify the tears of the Moderate party, because what has been given to India is not what she demanded. What-ever the future, the present downfall of Mr. George is considered a great relief.

The feeling in Moslem circles is one of jubilation at the disappearance from the premiership of one who has been pronouncedly pro-Greek. They foresee in the fall of Mr. Lloyd George signs of the death of British pro-Greek policy and the further success of the Khilafat.

CONGRESS PROGRAMME.

EAST KHANDESH VOTES AGAINST CHANGE.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

BHUSAVAL, Oct. 20.

East Khandesh forms part of Maharastra proper. But it may be noted that there is not a single Taluka or Peta which is keen upon a change of the Congress programme. Only those at Erandol tried to compete for seats at the last election with the result that none of them could secure a seat either in the local Taluka, District or Provincial organisations or was elected delegate to the Congress.

The supporters of the "change" at Jalgaon tried to make a show of some preparation but wiser Counsel, seem to have prevailed and they did not even attend the meeting at which the election took place.

All the Talukas and Petas have between them elected about 120 members for the District Congress Committee: about 41 members for the Provincial Congress Committee and about 21 delegates to the Congress.

Mr. D. V. Gokhale of Poona visited Jalgaon, had a long private interview with th leading Jalgaon workers at the house of Mr. S. N. Sonalkar, vice-President District Congress Committee and in the public lecture which he delivered after this discussion, he did not even refer to the question of removal of the boycotts.

ALIBAG TALUKA COMMITTEE'S SUPPORT.

The Secretary, Alibag Taluka Congress committee, writes:

At the ordinary meeting of the Committee which was held in the local market on the 15th instant the following resolution was passed by an overwhelming majority:—

"This Committee upholds the Triple Boycott in the Congress Non-Cooperation programme and the Constructive programme laid down by Mahatma Gandhi at Bardoli. This Committte further directs that its elected representatives should support this view in the respective Congress organisations for which they are elected.

All representatives elected for the Kolaba District Congress Committee and Maharastra Provincial Congress Committee and the Delegates to the ensuing Congress Session at Gaya, on behalf of this Committee are staunch non-cooperators.

"KURLA MUNICIPALITY ELECTIONS."

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—With regard to my letter in your issue of the 25th July last, Re. "Kurla Municipality Election," I am really surprised to note that the local Municipality has decided to launch a prosecution against the author of the letter with a view to defend its policy, though there were so many odds against it.

To take the right view of the matter with regard to the public funds entrusted to the care of the nominees of the Kurla public they need not have to travel to find the solution of the question, beyond the four walls of the municipal offices wherein number of complaints re: nuisances could be found in the records unattended to and unanswered, the reason being that the public money was not spent on removing those complaints. The works of public utility are found starving for want of funds. These works are as under:—Regular Roads, new gutters drainage, construction of cross streets, metaling the lanes and gullies, removing the mosquito beds filling the water ditches etc., which are noticed in new and revised edition after each monsoon. The public in such a state of affairs are fully justified in inferring that public money is not properly spent.

No adequate attempt is made to shew to the public how the income is spent every year and in the face of want of new works attended to, and old complaints redressed public cannot be taken to task for drawing its own inference. Neither enmity nor hatred against these public nominees has actuated the author to publish his views. But he was prompted by a motive to encourage these public nominees as his friends and brothers to enable them to work with double energy for the good of the public they have come forward to protect. But instead of taking a piece of advice from these publications, they decided to harp on the old harp without heeding these writings. This is the misfortune of Kurla public!—Yours, etc.

DAYANAND SARASWATI ANNIVERSARY.

Sunday last, it being the anniversary day of the great Arya Samajist Swami Dayanand Saraswati a public meeting was held in the hall of the Arya Samaj at Girgaon to celebrate the event as well as to perform the opening ceremony of a new wing of the Samaj for the purpose of extending the institution the present hall having been found too small for the immediate requirements of the Samaj. Public speakers were invited from all over the country and there was a large gathering of the Arya Samajists. Mr. Ranchhorelal Lotewala, in opening the proceedings, said how the new wing came to be recognised a necessity and how in a short time nearly half a lakh of rupees was subscribed by different Samjists. BUSY WEEK-END AT ALIGARH.

UNIVERSITY TO OPEN SANSKRIT DEPARTMENT.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

LUCKNOW, Oct. 23.

The special correspondent of the Associated Press of India at Aligarh states:—Aligarh witnessed a busy week-end in connection with the Muslim University affairs. The Hon. the Raja of Mahmudabad arrived on the 18th and the retrenchment committee consisting of G. N. Chakravarty, Vice-Chancellor, Lucknow University, Messrs. Mackenzie and Grant and other local members assembled on October 19th and 20th under the chairmanship of Mr. A. Hydarie, Finance Member, Nizam's Government. The committee's proposals are expected to effect substantial savings. On October 21st the Executive Council of the University considered the draft regulations of the Council and passed them finally.

The annual meeting of the newly constituted court of the University was held on Sunday attended by some 40 members, including Sir Rahi Bux and Mr. Hydarie the Vice-Chancellor. The Hon. the Raja of Mahmudabad opened the proceedings with the enumeration of the services of a number of distinguished members of the University court who had died in the year and a vote of condolence was passed to be conveyed to their families. Before the items on the agenda were taken up, Hon. Sir Mohamed Shafi addressed the meeting on the work of the University in a spirit of goodwill and cooperation and appealed to those present to devote their energies towards advancing the interests of the institution which is destined to play as important a part in the future progress of the community as the Old College had in the past. The Vice-Chancellor then presented his annual report and the budget as presented was passed subject to the proposals of the retrenchment committee.

SANSKRIT DEPARTMENT.

After electing two members for the court and the executive council, the meeting proceeded to discuss a very interesting resolution for the opening of a department for the teaching of Sanskrit. Mr. Muhamud Yakub of Moradabad in supporting the resolution pointed out the importance of the measure. According to the old Islamic traditions the doors of knowledge should be open for all seekers of learning in the Muslim University and Aligarh should lead in spreading the spirit of liberalism in educational matters. This example, he said was likely to be set by Benares University where an Arabic faculty might be opened and this would the speaker declared, strengthen Hindu-Moslem Unity. The measure was unanimously passed and a Sanskrit department is going to be opened forthwith.

MOTTO OF THE UNIVERSITY.

Another interesting item was the selection of a motto for the seal of the University. From a number of suggestions received, the most appropriate was found to be the Prophet's famous injunction to Musalmans "Seek knowledge even if it is found in China," and it was unanimously adopted. It was also resolved to follow old practice of conducting the proceedings of the Court in Urdu as far as possible. After a short statement by the Vice-Chancellor with regard to the cancellation of royal visit to Aligarh, a committee was appointed to draft the regulations of the court. The Vice-Chancellor announced amidst cheers the munificiance of his Exalted Highness the Nizam of Hyderabad in increasing his grant to the University from Rs. 24,000 per annum to Rs. 36,000 and a vote of thanks was passed.

It is understood that the Vice-Chancellor has requested her Highness the Begam of Bhopal, the Chancellor, to fix a date for the first Convocation of the University. The function is expected to be unque in as much as Aligarh is the only University in the world whose Chancellor is an enlightened lady who is also the ruler of a progressive state.

KATHIAWAD NOTES.

THE RAJKIYA PARISHAD.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

LIMBDI, Oct. 22.

The Working Committee of the second Kathiawad Rajkiya Parishad not finding itself able to cope with the work in connection with the sitting of the Parishad as early as 6th proximo and as it was suitable to the President-elect Mr. Abbas Tyabji, has put off the dates of the sitting and finally fixed the 19th, 20th and 21st November. It rests with all Kathiawadis now to help the Parishad, by taking an active part in it, and by attending it, either as members of the Reception Committee, delegates or spectators.

DIIWALI FESTIVAL.

In all big places in Kathiawad, people clearly showed signs of their having understood the condition of their country, by abstaining as much as possible from the luxury of fire-works, and by abstaining from all rejoicings, when the country is in mourning.

WADHWAN RASHTRIYA SHALA.

The Wadhwan Rashtriya Shala, which is being conducted, on the lines of the Ashram at Sabarmati, under the management of Mr. Fulchand Kasturchand Shah, a true disciple of Mahatma Gandhi, is doing excellent work. It is becoming an ideal institution just like the Dakshinamurti Vidyarthi-bhavan at Bhavnagar. Donations for the maintenance of this institution which is really deserving of help, are invited from all charitable persons.

LIMBDI SWAYAMSEVAK MANDAL.

This Swayamsevak Mandal is doing creditable work in connection with khaddar propaganda. The volunteers pay house to house visits and hawk khaddar throughout the city. A scheme for going to the neighbouring villages to sell khaddar is also in contemplation. It is actively helping in the work in connection with the Kathiawad Rajkiya Parishad also. It calls several meetings, both of women and men under its auspices. The credit for a collection of 1,300 rupees for the Gujrat Vidyapith from Limbdi, lies with this mandal.

HYDERABAD NOTES.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

SECUNDERABAD, Oct. 21.

H. E. H. the Nizam gave a farewell dinner to Col. Knox (acting Resident) and Mrs. Knox last evening at King Kothi Palace. There was a brilliant gathering present, including the Princes and Princesses, General Godwin, Sir Kishen Pershad, Sir Faridoon-ul-Mulk, priacipa nobles of the State and many European and Indian Officers. In proposing the health of Col. and Mrs. Knox H. E. H. the Nizam said that the latter were leaving behind them feelings of affection and regard firmly implanted in the bosoms of their friends which would, for ever, keep their memory fresh and green.

Col. Knox in his reply said since he had come to know it nothing about this famous city had struck him more than the way in which all castes and creeds came together in friendly fashion at social gatherings.

Concluding Col. Knox said amid prolonged cheers—"Long may Hyderabad continue to flourish as the premier state of India and long may its present illustrious ruler continue to peside over its destinies."

NATIONAL EDUCATION.

A correspondent writes:—

Old students of the Jamia Millia Islamia, Aligarh, held a big reception in honour of their old Principal, Mr. A. M. Khwaja on Wednesday last. Mr. Abdulla Yusufali, Minister, Improvement and Colonisation department, Mr. Ghulam Akbar Khan, Judge, High Court, Dr Abdus Satoor, Principal, Osmania University, Major Naidu, Principal, Medical College, and several others were present on the occasion. After refreshments Mr. Abdulla Yusufali was voted to the chair. Speeches were made by some of the "Old Boys" of Mr. Khwaja, eulogising his services to the cause of education.

After Mr. Khwaja's speech, the president expressed his satisfaction with the work which the Jamia had done in such a short period. He appreciated the technical training which had been introduced in the Jamia. On Thursday a public meeting was held at the Vardhani theatre to hear Mr. Khwaja once more. Before leaving Hyderabad Dr. Nazirudin Hasan, M.A. LL.D., Bar-at-law who has great interest in education, was voted to the chair. Mr. Khwaja in addressing the meeting fully explained the need and advantages of national education, imparted through the medium of the mother tongue and imbued with the national ideals of patriotism self-help and self-sacrifice. He thanked the public and H. E. H. the Nizam for their great sympathy with National education.

TREATY OF VERSAILLES.

IN PROCESS OF ANNULMENT.

At the present moment, when Mr. Lloyd George is loudly proclaiming the virtues of the Treaty of Versailles, the following article by a member of the Third International (taken from International Press Correspondence) is of some interest:—

Before the honourable authors of the Treaty of Versailles meet again, not to pull their hair in despair, but to proceed with their work, the Treaty of Versailles will probably have been annulled in all its parts by the force of events.

The Red Army had begun this liquidation of the Treaty when it cut with its bayonets the noose prepared for the Russian Revolution. The golden dollars of the United States, poured upon the Treaty have continued the process. The United States has broken England's control of the seas. Mr. Marc Sullivan, the American historian of the Washington Conference, declared truly that no one had ever sunk as many English ships as Mr. House, Secretary of State, and that, without any naval combat. As for the reparations part of the Versailles program, neither dollars nor bayonets were necessary to tear it up. Since the purpose of this program was to force Germany to pay, it is destroyed by the very fact that Germany has no dollars. The only question is to know whether the reparations problem will be solved before or after the fall of bourgeois society in Germany.

DEFEAT OF ENGLISH CAPITALISH.

And now we see the absolute failure of the Treaty of Versailles in the Near East. The victory of the Turks is a defeat for England. There is nothing platonic in Mr. Lloyd George's friendship for the millionaire Basil Zaharoff. The defeat of the Greek forces, then, is a defeat of English capitalism.

This is more for England than a purely commercial defeat. The Turks demand Thrace, peopled by Greeks and Bulgarians, and in which England is greatly interested; not because it is anxious to defend the rights of nationalities (she has proved this when she delivered millions of Germans to France, Poland and Czecho-Slovakia), but because the question of Thrace is also the question of the Straits. Constantinople is formally occupied by the Allies. In fact The Turkish capital is controlled by England; at least this is what the semi-official organs of the French Government continually affirm. This is why Turkey has a much harder fight before it to conquer Thrace than to defeat Greece.

England has always known how to let others fight her battles. Colonel Repington declares that the occupation of Thrace by the Turks would gravely prejudice the interests of the people living near the Black Sea. Whom does Mr. Repington mean? Czecho-Slovakia has a sea-shore only according to Shakespeare. Jugoslavia borders only on the Adriatic. Roumania is divided between the opposite influences of France and England, and consequently does not quite know what its interests in the question of the Dardanelles are. Besides these there also exist near the Black Sea, Bulgaria, Soviet Russia; Soviet Ukraina, Soviet Georgia, whom Mr. Repington certainly did not consult.

Mr. Repington made a mistake. Soviet Russia, even if it renounced the policy of Romanov and Miliukov, has nevertheless a great interest that the Dardanelles question be solved without detriment to the people of the Back Sea, and will never resognize any decision reached without consulting it.

English imperialism, wounded in Asia Minor and in Thrace, has suffered further defeat in Egypt and Mesopotamia.

EGYPTIAN TRAGICOMEDY.

During the war, fearing the rebellion of the Mohamedan people, it had adopted liberal manners, and distributed, here and there, diplomas of national independence. Last February, after imprisoning Ragul Pasha and the leaders of Egyptian nationalism, English imperialism proclaimed . . . the independence of Egypt. Over independent Egypt it set a ruler backed only by the English guns left behind in the liberated country. Then the leaders of the Egyptian National Movement still at liberty, published in June a protest against English tyranny. Lord Allenby then brought these leaders before an English court-martial and punished each to seven years at forced labour;—this in independent Egypt. Another Egyptian delegation which protested against this interpretation of Egyptian independence, was also arrested. This is probably in accordance with Mr. Lloyd George's solemn agreement of February 27th: "From now on", said the English Prime Minister, "the Egyptians may decide on their own institutions."

The "Manchester Guardian" characterizes this as a tragi-comedy which may end rather badly. The liberal English organ remarks that a new Egyptian Government exists only thanks to the support of English military authority and the English court-martial; that it had never been elected by anybody nor would ever be. Elections under the regime of the English occupation would be only another irony. The explanation is that Mr. Lloyd George cannot recall the English troops from Egypt because Great Britain needs the Suez Canal. It is the bad luck of these unhappy Egyptians that they were born near this Canal. Why do the Governments of Penza and Tambov not live in Soviet Russia. Mr. Lloyd George would make no difficulty about recognizing their independence.

THE "SICK KING" OF MESOPOTAMIA.

In Mesopotamia the English have also erected an independent kingdom which they have naturally robbed of its petroleum exploitations in Mossul. As a compensation it received the English troops of Sir Cox, and as King, ex-Emir Faysal of Syria, chased from his throne by General Gouraud, another founder of independent kingdoms, but for the account of France. To keep Faysal as near Syria as possible, the statesmen of London have made him King of Mesopotamia, naturally a duly elected king. That is to say, the English Commandant asked the chiefs of the Arab tribes if they wanted Faysal and his English pounds. The enthusiasm of these chiefs was great. But the beautiful English pounds in the hands of the Arabs may serve unexpected purposes. When Sir Percy Mesopotamia, he heard England damned. Cox came to pay a visit to the King of He was naturally displeased. King Faysal suddenly fell ill . . . (appendicitis). His ministers were arrested.

The English press is no medical authority. Mesopotamia and King Faysal are suffering from another disease than an inflamation of the intestine. The organism is suffering from the presence of parasites. No surgery will cure them, even if one cuts off the heads of the "Sick King" and his most robust ministers.

The situation of England in the Near East is another proof of the failure of Versailles. Versailles is being annulled there also. Where an organized force is working its annullment, as in Russia and Turkey, the process is much more rapid. In other countries, the process drags. But in both cases the annulment proceeds, and nothing can stop it.

CENSORING TELEGRAMS.

SYLHET DEPUTY COMMISSIONER'S VAGARY.

Mr. A. H. S. Khatri, General Secretary the Central Khilafat Committee, Bombay, writes:—

On 19th October the Central Khilafat Committee received the following wire from the Sylhet Khilafat Committee: "Jamashakti case 24th send torn Qurans of Maishbagh immediately". Thereupon I wired to Sylhet the following reply: "Quran sent Delhi through Khilafat. Superintendent for delivery Assam member to ensure safety wired Delhi for despatch." On 20th Telegraph Office intimated us that above telegram has been held by the Deputy Commissioner Sylhet Obviously the Deputy Commissioner does not like that torn Qurans should be exhibited in the Court; hence this high-handed stoppage of ordinary message.

understood that the management has not bound itself to any agreement, and that the men have agreed to resume work unconditionally.

DUTY OF BRITISH TRADE UNIONISTS.

The All-India Trade Union Congress sends us the following communication:—

The following letter has been addressed to Mr. Pugh, Secretary, Iron and Steel Trades Confederation, London, regarding the Jamshedpur Strike. This letter is from the Workers' Welfare League of India, London, and is signed by the following:—Mr. Shapurji Saklatvala, Dr. K. S Bhat, Messrs C B Vakil, John Arnall. B .G. Horniman, G. Bery, J E Potter-Wilson Esqr.,

"Dear Comrad:—From the "Daily Telegraph" of the 23rd inst., and from other similar organs you must have learnt about the strike of 20,000 employees of the Tata Iron and Steel Works at Jamshedpur in India. We cannot and therefore do not propose to enter into the question of the merits and demerits of the complaint of these very low-paid labourers out there. We are concerned with the news that is wired from Calcutta in connection with this strike that "an adequate force of armed police and two detachments of Gurkhas have been sent to prevent disorders." The Directors have further announced their plan that if the men persisted in their demands they would "close down the works, on which the life of the town depends."

What the League's Council is seriously worried with is not the conduct of the Directors or of the Gurkha regiments, which would be of the usual and normal character, but with the conduct on such critical occasions of those British superior officers who in their turn are Trade Unionists, and large numbers of whom are members of the Iron and Steel Trades Confederation or allied trades. The European Trade Unionists has so far entirely failed in his Trade Union duties when he has gone abroad to hold positions over Oriental labour. We greatly fear that even in the present instance several of the persons who would be calling in military aid to suppress men whose claims from a constitutional Trade Union point of view would be quite just, would be themselves British Trade Unionist and even members of your organisation. Our Oriental comrades now expect British Trade Unionists to radically change their outlook and attitude and to behave in comformity with the spirit of International solidarity in Trade Union life.

My Council lays no charge whatever against any persons, but fearing a scandal to be exposed later they appeal to you immediately to send out two cablegrams giving a mild warning and asking for proper information.

If you will be good enough to send out one cablegram to any reliable member of yours at Jamshedpur, and ask him to cable to you the gist of the men's demands, the amount of support or opposition offered by your members to the same, and also expressing your hope that your Federation expects from its members a strict respect for the observance of Trade Union Principles without race and colour bias, you will render a most valuable service to the World's Movement.

We would request you to send a second cablegram to the Secretary of the Trade Union Congress of India, asking for exact information re. the above strike, the attitude of the European staff, and also for any suggestion for constitutional assistance from your powerful Federation.

Kindly treat this matter as urgent.

Yours fraternally,
